

LEON JEACOCK

Leon Jeacock is twenty-one years old and lives in Nuneaton, Warwickshire. In 2009 Leon dominated the Club racing scene, winning three Championships at the East Midlands Racing Association. The next chapter in Leon's successful racing career will see him tackle the 2010 Metzeler National Superstock 600 Championship. The Championship is designed to identify new riding talent and provide a progressive route to higher classes of racing for talented young racers between the ages of 16 and 25 years. The Championship supports the British Superbike Championship (BSB) and is run over ten rounds at the country's top racing circuits.
